

ACADEMICS

DB-Link: Literacy For Persons Who Are Deaf-Blind. By Barbara Miles, Ph.D.
January 2000.

<http://www.dblink.org/pdf/literacy.pdf>

Tips for Home or School: Promoting Literacy through Emergent Writing. By Mary Ann Demchak & Marty Elquist, Nevada Dual Sensory Impairment Project.
April, 2006

<http://www.unr.edu/educ/ndsip/tipsheets/promotingliteracy.pdf>

All Students Need to be Writers. “Vibrations” newsletter of Colorado Services for Children who are Deafblind, Modified Fall 2005 Edition: Focus on Literacy, with Particular Focus on Writing Skills.

<http://www.cde.state.co.us/cdesped/download/pdf/db-LiteracyFocusWritingSkills.pdf>

Accessing the Curriculum Frameworks Through English Language Arts:
Literacy. Martha M. Majors, Assistant Supervisor, Perkins Deafblind Program,
Perkins School for the Blind. In Touch, Vol. 6, Issue 4.

<http://www.perkins.org/assets/downloads/clearinghouse/nec0208.pdf>

Mathematics for Students with Deafblindness of Visual Impairment and Additional Disabilities. By Holly Cooper, Ph.D., Educational Consultant, Texas
School for the Blind and Visually Impaired Outreach Program, October 2009

http://www.tsbvi.edu/Outreach/handouts/oct09/Math_DBMIVI_Handout.pdf

Differentiated Instructional Strategies T/TAC Online, Virginia Department of Education.

http://www.ttaonline.org/staff/sol/math_deafblind.htm

Teaching Science to Students with Visual Impairments. By Margaret Edwards, TVI/Instructor, Special Programs, Texas School for the Blind and Visually
Impaired Outreach Program, December 2009.

<http://www.tsbvi.edu/Outreach/handouts/dec09/ScienceHandout.pdf>

Emergent Literacy for Children who are Deaf-Blind. Project SALUTE

<http://www.projectsalute.net/Learned/Learnedhtml/EmergentLit.html>